May 10, 2022

Dear NMPSIA Members,

On October 18, 2021 the Interagency Benefits Advisory Committee (IBAC), created by the Health Care Purchasing Act in 1997 that includes the New Mexico Public Schools Insurance Authority (NMPSIA), Albuquerque Public Schools, New Mexico General Serviced Department and the New Mexico Retiree Health Care Authority (this procurement included the University of New Mexico), released a Request for Proposal for a Pharmacy Benefits Manager (PBM). Proposals were reviewed in January 2022 and NMPSIA made their selection in April 2022.

NMPSIA is pleased to announce their selection of CVS caremark® (CVS) as the PBM effective July 1, 2022.

What this means to you:

- Your current Express Scripts prescription benefit enrollment will end on June 30, 2022 and you will automatically be enrolled with CVS effective July 1, 2022
- Your prescription drug benefit will not change and can be found on page 54 in your Program Guide found at <https://nmpsia.com/programGuide.html>
- In May and June CVS will be mailing the following communications:
 - Notification for members who will have a change in covered medications
 - Advising you of steps to help you understand your available medication options
 - A list of your current medication and alternate medication available
 - Notification for members utilizing a Specialty Pharmacy for Specialty medications
 - Advising you of steps to help you transition to your Specialty Pharmacy
 - Call 1-800-237-2767 before July 1st to set up your account
 - PrudentRx Specialty Pharmacy Information
 - Welcome Kit
 - Advising you of steps to help you prepare for this change
 - Includes your ID cards

Access points for CVS:

- Register your account after June 1, 2022 with CVS Caremark at <https://www.caremark.com/>
- After June 1, 2022, contact CVS Customer Service at 1-800-237-2767

Look for our joint logos on all communications from CVS:
Visit <https://nmpsia.com/> in the upcoming weeks for more information on the transition to CVS caremark®.

Sincerely,

NMPSIA Benefits Team
